“The perfect is the enemy of the good.” ~ Voltaire

“Worry never robs tomorrow of its sorrow, it only saps today of its joy.” ~ Leo Buscaglia

“Some people feel guilty about their anxieties and regard them as a defect of faith. I don't agree at all. They are afflictions, not sins. Like all afflictions, they are, if we can so take them, our share in the Passion of Christ.” ~ C.S. Lewis

“We fear men so much, because we fear God so little. One fear cures another. When man's terror scares you, turn your thoughts to the wrath of God.” ~ G.K. Chesterton

Catechism Connection

2547 The Lord grieves over the rich, because they find their consolation in the abundance of goods. “Let the proud seek and love earthly kingdoms, but blessed are the poor in spirit for theirs is the Kingdom of heaven.” Abandonment to the providence of the Father in heaven frees us from anxiety about tomorrow. Trust in God is a preparation for the blessedness of the poor. They shall see God.

322 Christ invites us to filial trust in the providence of our heavenly Father (cf. Mt 6:26-34), and St. Peter the apostle repeats: “Cast all your anxieties on him, for he cares about you” (1 Pet 5:7; cf. Ps 55:23).

What are we really seeking? - Peace and Security.

How much time do you spend on the spiritual aspects, the only ones that last forever, of your life?

“Why give up what you cannot keep for what you cannot lose.”
~ Jim Elliott

Catechism Connection

2651 The tradition of Christian prayer is one of the ways in which the tradition of faith takes shape and grows, especially through the contemplation and study of the believers who treasure in their hearts the events and words of the economy of salvation, and though their profound grasp of the spiritual realities they experience.

2207 The family is the original cell of social life. It is the natural society in which husband and wife are called to give themselves in love and in the gift of life. Authority, stability, and a life of relationships within the family constitute the foundations for freedom, security, and fraternity within society.

2432 Those responsible for business enterprises are responsible to society for the economic and ecological effects of their operations. They have an obligation to consider the good of persons and not only the increase of profits. Profits are necessary, however. They make possible the investments that ensure the future of a business and they guarantee employment.

1936 On coming into the world, man is not equipped with everything he needs for developing his bodily and spiritual life. He needs others. Differences appear tied to age, physical abilities, intellectual or moral aptitudes, the benefits derived from social commerce, and the distribution of wealth. The “talents” are not distributed equally.

1937 These differences belong to God’s plan, who wills that each receive what he needs from others, and that those endowed with particular “talents” share the benefits with those who need them. These differences encourage and often oblige persons to practice generosity, kindness, and sharing of goods; they foster mutual enrichment of cultures.

“You either belong wholly to the world or wholly to God.”
~ St. John Vianney

“Sometimes the only way the good Lord can get into some hearts is to break them.” ~ Bishop Fulton J. Sheen

“Grant me, O Lord my God, a mind to know You, a heart to seek You, wisdom to find You, conduct pleasing to You, faithful perseverance in waiting for You and a hope of finally embracing You.” ~ St. Thomas Aquinas

“...at the heart of catechesis we find, in essence, a Person, the Person of Jesus of Nazareth, “the only Son from the Father...full of grace and truth,” who suffered and died for us and who now, after rising, is living with us forever. It is Jesus who is “the way, the truth and the life,” and Christian living consists in following Christ...” ~ Saint Pope John Paul II, Apostolic Exhortation, Catechesi Tradendae

“Christianity is not a new philosophy or a new morality. We are Christians only if we encounter Christ... Only in this personal relationship with Christ, only in this encounter with the Risen One do we really become Christians.” ~ Pope Benedict XVI, Vatican City, Sept. 3, 2008

“Our knowledge of Jesus is in need above all of a living experience: Another person’s testimony is certainly important, as in general the whole of our Christian life begins with the proclamation that comes to us from one or several witnesses. But we ourselves must be personally involved in an intimate and profound relationship with Jesus.” ~ Pope Benedict XVI, Rome, Oct. 4, 2006

Catechism Connection

1 God, infinitely perfect and blessed in himself, in a plan of sheer goodness freely created man to make him share in his own blessed life. For this reason, at every time and in every place, God draws close to man. He calls man to seek him, to know him, to love him with all his strength. He calls together all men, scattered and divided by sin, into the unity of his family, the Church. To accomplish this, when the fullness of time had come, God sent his Son as Redeemer and Savior. In his Son and through him, he invites men to become, in the Holy Spirit, his adopted children and thus heirs of his blessed life.

Coaching Tips

We fall asleep literally, figuratively and spiritually. The world is constantly urging us to put self ahead of God. We, like the Apostles, are there, but not there, and the only way to combat this is through prayer.

Jesus refers to man's inner struggle, where the flesh, wounded by sin, is constantly at war with the spirit (Rom 8:12-14; Gal 5:19-24). The graces we need to overcome our weaknesses must be sought through persistent prayer (1 Thess 5:17; Heb 4:16). Although the power of the Holy Spirit enables us to live victoriously, the struggle is not minimized or made easy. Coach Danny reminds us that we have to reserve quality time for prayer and meditation - from the time we open our eyes in the morning.

Revisit the final moments of Jesus' life with the Disciples. Read and reflect on John chapters 13-17. John has described in detail who we are, our relationship with Jesus, and what we must do and how we should do it. Yet, we are asleep regarding so many issues: faith, family, sexuality.

“The Faith is in danger of dying out due to the lack of fuel.” ~ Pope Benedict XVI

“I have concentrated all my prayers into one, and that one prayer is this, that I may die to self, and live wholly in Him.” ~ Charles Spurgeon

Workout Questions:

1. Read John 6:60-69. What do these powerful words of Jesus mean to you?
2. Today, many Catholics are turning away from the faith because they do not want to adhere to some of the difficult teachings of Jesus Christ and His Catholic Church, such as, abortion, same sex marriage, and contraception just to name a few. As a practicing Catholic, do you believe you should follow all of the teachings of the Church concerning Faith and Morals? Or do you believe we should be able to pick and choose? Why?
3. Take time to compare your answers to the above questions to Christ’s teachings in Scripture and the Catechism of the Catholic Church to find out where you stand.
4. Do you believe that many of us Catholics, including yourself, are being influenced by the secular media on these subjects?

Coaching Tips

The “narrow way” leads to life.

“If you wish to imitate the multitude, then you shall not be among the few who shall enter in by the narrow gate.”

~ St. Augustine (354-430 AD)

“I exhort you, therefore, not to faint in your afflictions, but to be revived by God’s love, and to add daily to your zeal, knowing that in you ought to be preserved that remnant of true religion which the Lord will find when He comes on the earth. Even if bishops are driven from their Churches, be not dismayed. If traitors have arisen from among the very clergy themselves, let not this undermine your confidence in God. We are saved not by names, but by mind and purpose, and genuine love toward our Creator. Bethink you how in the attack against our Lord, high priests and scribes and elders devised the plot, and how few of the people were found really receiving the word. Remember that it is not the multitude who are being saved, but the elect of God. Be not then affrighted at the great multitude of the people who are carried hither and thither by winds, like the waters of the sea. If but one be saved, like Lot at Sodom, he ought to abide in right judgment, keeping his hope in Christ unshaken, for the Lord will not forsake His holy ones.” ~ St. Basil the Great (330-379 AD)

Catechism Connection

853 On her pilgrimage, the Church has also experience the “discrepancy existing between the message she proclaims and the human weakness of those to whom the Gospel has been entrusted.” Only by taking the “way of penance and renewal,” the “narrow way of the cross,” can the People of God extend Christ’s reign. For “just as Christ carried out the work of redemption in poverty and oppression, so the Church is called to follow the same path if she is to communicate the fruits of salvation to men.”

1344 Thus from celebration to celebration, as they proclaim the Paschal mystery of Jesus “until he comes,” the pilgrim People of God advances, “following the narrow way of the cross,” toward the heavenly banquet, when all the elect will be seated at the table of the kingdom.

Revelation 12:10
Romans 8:12-13

Coaching Tips

The Kingdom is not a thing, it is not a geographical dominion like worldly kingdoms. It is a person; it is He.

The Kingdom of God resides in the heart of man. “Those who pray for the coming of the Kingdom of God pray without any doubt for the Kingdom of God that they contain in themselves, and they pray that this kingdom might bear fruit and attain its fullness.” ~ Origen (Church Father)

The Kingdom of God is in the here and now, present in and through the Church. Yet it is a mixed reality that will only be perfectly realized at the end of history.

“Even if you are on the right track, you will get run over if you just sit there.” Will Rodgers

Catechism Connection

2816 In the New Testament, the word basileia can be translated by “kingship” (abstract noun), “kingdom” (concrete noun) or “reign” (action noun). The Kingdom of God lies ahead of us. It is brought near in the Word incarnate, it is proclaimed throughout the whole Gospel, and it has come in Christ’s death and Resurrection. The Kingdom of God has been coming since the Last Supper and, in the Eucharist, it is in our midst. The kingdom will come in glory when Christ hands it over to his Father:

It may even be... that the Kingdom of God means Christ himself, whom we daily desire to come, and whose coming we wish to be manifested quickly to us. For as he is our resurrection, since in him we rise, so he can also be understood as the Kingdom of God, for in him we shall reign.

2818 In the Lord’s Prayer, “thy kingdom come” refers primarily to the final coming of the reign of God through Christ’s return.<sup>88</sup> But, far from distracting the Church from her mission in this present world, this desire commits her to it all the more strongly. Since Pentecost, the coming of that Reign is the work of the Spirit of the Lord who “complete[s] his work on earth and brings us the fullness of grace.”

2. Why do you think that God loves us so much, even in spite of our sinfulness? In other words, unconditionally?
3. If God asked you personally, “Do you love Me?” what would your response be? What if He then added, “unconditionally”?
4. If you accept God’s love, how do you show (reflect) this love to others, especially your family?
5. Whenever we fall in love, we can’t wait to tell that person and share the news with others. Do you tell God that you love Him? How? Do you share with others how much you love God?

Coaching Tips

Charity (love) is defined as, “the theological virtue by which we love God above all things for His own sake, and our neighbor as ourselves for the love of God.”

Love is a decision – a deliberate act of the will.

Love always involves a sacrifice on the part of the lover for the benefit of the beloved. Love demands action.

True love, unconditional sacrificial love, is not so much blind, as it overlooks the less desirable attributes of the beloved.

Real love requires “total self donation.” ~ Saint Pope John Paul II

Catechism Connection

604 By giving up his own Son for our sins, God manifests that his plan for us is one of benevolent love, prior to any merit on our part: “In this is love, not that we loved God but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the expiation for our sins.” God “shows his love for us in that while we were yet sinners Christ died for us.”

605 At the end of the parable of the lost sheep Jesus recalled that God’s love excludes no one: “So it is not the will of your Father who is in heaven that one of these little ones should perish.” He affirms that he came “to give his life as a ransom for man”; this last term is not restrictive, but contrasts the whole of humanity with the unique person of the redeemer who hands himself over to save us. The Church, following the apostles, teaches that Christ died for all men without exception: “There is not, never has been, and never will be, a single human being for whom Christ did not suffer.”

609 By embracing in his human heart, the Father’s love for men, Jesus “loved them to the end,” for “greater love has no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.” In his suffering and death his humanity became the free and perfect instrument of his divine love which desires the salvation of men. Indeed, out of love for his Father and for men, whom the Father wants to save, Jesus freely accepted his Passion and death: “No one takes [my life] from me, but I lay it down of my own accord.” Hence the sovereign freedom of God’s Son as he went out to his death.
